Description

Spanish Property Choice would like to offer you the opportunity to purchase a large traditional 5 bedroom, 2.5 bathroom semi-detached Cortijo in the hamlet of Los Andreses near Sorbas.

Due to its location, you are within a short drive to Los Gallardos, where you are able to purchase all of your weekly requirements. The village also offers banks, doctors, dentist, a pharmacy and many other amenities, and then a short 10-minute drive to the lovely Mojacar beaches.

Access is via a road, which takes you to a large parking area with room for several cars. A convenient Car Port provides much needed shade for the vehicles during the hot summer months.

There is also a covered log store, and a door leading to a large storage area, which was previously used to house animals.

There is a gated front terraced area which leads to the main entrance of the property.

A door to the left of the terrace leads into another storage area, that can also be accessed via the main kitchen. This could easily be converted into a craft room, exercise area or even a man cave, the possibilities are endless!

The entrance door, in the style of a stable door, will lead you directly into the large living room. An air conditioning unit enables climate control.

From here, and through double wooden doors, takes you to a room that was previously used as a kitchen so is currently fitted with wall units and part tiled, but could be converted to be used as a study, or even an additional ground floor bedroom.

An archway, takes you to another large open area, which was previously used as the dining room and to the right of this leads to the utility room. Located on the corner of the once dining room, is a large fireplace with a wood burning stove, which when lit, helps to warm the whole house warm during the cooler months.
