With just a short walk to the beachfront and all amenities, this is an ideal property for someone that wants to be able to access everything on foot and be part of the Spanish community.

Garrucha is a fishing port and renowned for the gambas rojo. It has many restaurants specialising in fish dishes, and of course offers many other shops and amenities.

As you would expect, it celebrates many fiestas also, when the town comes alive.

There is also a lovely beach area here.

The building is very well maintained, with a clean and bright entrance hallway with post boxes.

Lift access is provided up to the third floor where the apartment is located.

As you enter the front door, you are taken directly into an open plan living, dining and kitchen area. The first thing that you will notice are the incredible sea views.

The lounge has a pellet fireplace and a modern design however the feature of the room are the large glass patio doors and floor to ceiling window that boast a fantastic view over the village rooftops and out to the Mediterranean Sea.

From here you access the very large private terrace which enjoys the South East sun all day long.

There is an electric sun blind to provide a shaded area during the hot summer days. This is a very private space as there are opaque glass panels between the two neighbours.

There is a designated dining area, convenient to the fully equipped kitchen, with ample storage units and modern electrical appliances.

The first double bedroom is located off the dining area.

Just off the kitchen there is a useful utility cupboard.
