Description

This small house is located in the area known as La Dehesa, near the village of Los Romanes and around a 35 minutes drive to the coast. The house is quite small, but it has everything you need. There is a living room with kitchen area, a wc and the bed is situated in a mezzanine floor made out of wood as ceiling is quite high. Porch at the front with a large awning and the most amazing sea & countryside views. Next to the house, there is a mobile home that currently has wooden floors and 2 bedrooms plus a room in the middle, where a bathroom could be installed. Nice plot of land with some fruit trees and the utmost peace and quiet. Dirt track access in some of the way. Mains water and solar system for electrics.
