Description

This South Facing, Two Bedroom, End Bungalow in Formentera del Segura is located in a charming and traditional Spanish setting, just a short walk from the popular square, also you'll find a selection of café bars, restaurants, a bank, and the municipal sports ground with a pool—all within five minutes on foot. A supermarket is approximately a ten-minute walk away, while the nearby towns of Benijofar and Rojales can be reached in just a five-minute drive. For golf lovers, La Marquesa Golf Course is only ten minutes away, and the beautiful sandy beaches of the Costa Blanca South are just a 15-minute drive. This typical Spanish style bungalow is set all on one level, offering a cozy yet practical living space. The lounge benefits from an air conditioning unit and an open fireplace, perfect for year-round comfort. There is a separate kitchen, while the two double bedrooms both include ceiling fans. A family shower room completes the interior layout. To the rear of the property, a private courtyard offers an ideal outdoor space for relaxing or dining alfresco. This property is a fantastic opportunity for those seeking a traditional Spanish home in a well-connected and desirable location on the Costa Blanca South!
